The meeting started with the name of Allah Almighty. Thereafter, Prof. Dr. Asif Ali, Convener, IQC, welcomed the members and appreciated their valuable contributions and continued commitment towards strengthening the University's Internal Quality Assurance (IQA) system. He acknowledged the active support and coordinated efforts of the members, which has ensured the successful planning and conduct of the Self-Graduate Program Review (Self-GPR) 2025-26 and Self-Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (Self-RIPE) 2025-26. The Director, QEC further acknowledged the active participation of all academic and administrative departments in facilitating the review processes and reaffirmed that the outcomes of these reviews would serve as a foundation for continuous quality improvement across the University.

Subsequently, the meeting proceeded with the discussion of the following agenda items:

A. Approval of Self-Graduate Program Review (GPR) 2025-26 Report and Compliance Implementation Plan Prepared in Response to GPR 2025-26

The Director, QEC informed the house that the Self-Graduate Program Review (Self-GPR) 2025-26 was successfully conducted on April 13-14, 2026. Following the review, the compiled Graduate Program Review (GPR) 2025-26 report was presented before the house indicating the observations, findings and recommendations of the review panel.

A Compliance Implementation Plan (CIP) in response to GPR 2025-26 was also chalked out. The Director QEC presented the significant recommendations arising from the GPR report, merged across categories, along with the proposed compliance plan. The proposed CIP outlines the key findings, corresponding corrective actions, responsible offices and target timelines for compliance. The House apprised that the CIP translates the criterion-wise findings and observations raised during the review meetings into concrete and time-bound actions under the Continuous Quality Improvement (CQI) mechanism.

The House considered and approved the Self-Graduate Program Review (GPR) 2025-26 report and CIP and Director QEC was directed to circulate the approved CIP to the concerned offices for further necessary actions and follow up.

B. Approval of Self-Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (RIPE) 2025-26 Report and Compliance Implementation Plan Prepared in Response to RIPE 2025-26

The Director, QEC updated that Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (RIPE) is conducted by institutions for internal quality assurance and by Quality Assurance Agency for external quality assurance, to inform students and the wider public as to whether a university set and maintain academic standards and plan effectively to enhance the quality of higher education provision for higher education qualifications. Thus, RIPE serves the dual purposes of providing accountability to students, employers and others with an interest in higher education, while at the same time encouraging improvement and enhancement at the institutional level. The Director, QEC presented the findings/ recommendations of Self-Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (RIPE 2025-26) submitted by the Review Panel following its visit on April 20-22, 2026, and a proposed Compliance Implementation Plan (CIP) prepared in response to the findings and recommendations of the Self-Review of Institutional Performance & Enhancement (RIPE) 2025-26 report. The RIPE CIP translates standard-wise findings and observations that rose during the review meetings by assigning the tasks to different academic and administrative offices with clearly mentioned timelines.

The house considered and approved the Self-RIPE 2025-26 report and Compliance Implementation Plan (CIP) and Director QEC was directed to circulate the approved plan to the concerned offices for further necessary actions and follow up.

The meeting adjourned with vote of thanks by the Chair.
